

CASE STUDIES REFLECTION

Think about some of the tools you saw teachers and learners using in the case studies. In your group, consider the questions below and note your answers. The last two rows are blank for you to fill in with your own examples.

	How did the learners use the tool? What did they do with it?	What "low-tech" tool could this replace? How does the digital tool improve it?	What (if anything) did learners do with this tool that they couldn't do before?
